

Round 1 –

Speaker 1:

Auto industry: Is it time to throw in the towel?

What hope does same-sex marriage have in the US?

How effective was Obama's State of the Union Address in procuring bipartisanship support for his agenda?

Speaker 2:

Should the GOP give McCain one more shot in 2012?

What steps can be taken for effective school reform in the US?

Will Obama's State of the Union Address be a contributing factor in securing effective employment legislation?

Speaker 3:

What effect did the State of the Union Address have on the public's opinion of the Obama administration?

Has the American public lost faith in the auto industry?

What will Congress do regarding campaign finance reform?

Speaker 4:

Is it time for No Child Left Behind to be left behind?

Has the Massachusetts election derailed the Obama administration's agenda?

Airline industry: Surging back or circling the drain?

Speaker 5:

Is Obama on the right track for a 2012 victory?

Has the time come for the auto industry to embrace greener technology?

Will Proposition 8 be overturned?

Speaker 6:

How viable would a Tea Party candidate be in 2012?

Obama's call for bipartisanship: Legitimate olive branch or sign of political weakness?

How will a national high-speed rail initiative contribute to a new energy policy?

Speaker 7:

Should childhood obesity be more of an issue in 2010?

Will Obama's health care reform ever see the light of day?

Should the GOP begin seriously grooming Palin for 2012?

– Round 2

Speaker 1: – Round 2

What more is needed for Port-Au-Prince's recovery?

Afghanistan: How soon until we can safely extract our troops?

What will it take to bring Abbas back to the peace talks?

Speaker 2: – Round 2

Afghanistan: Imminent victory or another Vietnam?

What can be done to curtail Somali pirates?

Does the ICC have enough credibility to be a viable force for international justice?

Speaker 3: – Round 2

What progress has China made in curtailing human rights abuses?

Haiti: Successful assistance or another Katrina?

Will Okinawa derail US-Japan relations?

Speaker 4: – Round 2

Will the ICC's actions toward Sudan be the death knell for the court?

Would an Iranian nuclear program help the nation's citizens?

Is a smooth power transition possible for Ukrainian politics?

Speaker 5: – Round 2

Can British troops make a positive contribution in Afghanistan?

How will recent Ukrainian elections affect the nation's relations with Russia?

Will Russia's latest military doctrine affect talks on the START treaty with the US?

Speaker 6: – Round 2

Will the efforts of non-governmental organizations be enough for the people of Haiti?

Is Argentina out of the economic fire?

Will the Obama administration ever see a denuclearized Korean peninsula?

Speaker 7: – Round 2

How will Russia's latest military doctrine affect its relations with NATO?

What will it take for talks with North Korea to succeed?

Will the missionaries jailed in Haiti detract from the government's recovery efforts?

– Round 3 –

Speaker 1: – Round 3 –

What can the Schwarzenegger administration do to salvage the California economy?
What effect will TARP repayment have on the banking industry?
Is Toyota's auto recall the final nail in the economy's coffin?

Speaker 2: – Round 3 –

How will the TARP repayment money be used by the government?
Is now the time for a switch to cleaner energy?
Will Google step away from a Chinese market?

Speaker 3: – Round 3 –

What effect will participation in the Super Bowl have on the New Orleans economy?
Will small businesses hold the key to an American economic recovery?
Does Google have any hope for winning over China?

Speaker 4: – Round 3 –

Can Bernanke bring the economy back from the brink?
Will the coming "green revolution" boost employment enough to foster economic recovery?
Will taxing banks have any effect on the economic recession?

Speaker 5: – Round 3 –

Will April 15th be a good day for the American economy?
Is cap and trade a realistic option in this economic climate?
Interest rates: More fine-tuning or hands off?

Speaker 6: – Round 3 –

Will interest rates be the saving grace for economic recovery?
Can the airlines spur any significant economic growth?
Does off-shore drilling hold the secret to economic recovery?

Speaker 7: – Round 3 –

Should the Fed increase interest rates?
Economic recession: Will the spring be better than the winter?
Is now the right time to try to end the US dependence on foreign oil?

Final round –

Speaker 1:

Climate change: Who can we trust to find the truth?

Can environmental technology turn the British economy around?

What effect will the Supreme Court's recent decision on campaign contributions have on the upcoming midterm elections?

Speaker 2:

What can be done to boost the credibility of the IPCC?

Will Greece's economic woes spill over to the rest of Europe?

How might the military benefit from repealing its "don't ask don't tell" policy?

Speaker 3:

Will foreign corporations flood contributions into the next US election?

Could normalization of ties between Chad and Sudan end the insecurity of Darfur?

Will the lack of mention of Guantanamo Bay in the State of the Union Address end the possibility of the detention center's closure?

Speaker 4:

Bisphenol A: Should it be outlawed?

Will the humanitarian crisis in Haiti have any effect on our politics?

Will President Yar'Adua's health cost Nigeria its internal stability?

Speaker 5:

Is it time for the US to get on board the world's green energy bandwagon?

What can Mexico do to win its drug war?

What can the US do to get China on board for sanctions against Iran?

Speaker 6:

Will India adopt the use of genetically modified agricultural products?

How will proposed NASA budget changes affect the economy?

Can the First Lady rally enough support to successfully combat childhood obesity?

Speaker 7:

What effect has the economic recession had on our War on Terror?

Is the FDA effectively protecting the population?

Will Russia's proposed treaty amendment be taken seriously by NATO?